Executive Summary

Nabadwip Vidyasagar College was established on 5th March, 1942. When it was established in 1942, the college was affiliated to the University of Calcutta and thereafter it was affiliated to the University of Kalyani since 1998. The College is deemed to be one of the oldest colleges in West Bengal. Once upon a time, Nabadwip was called the Oxford of Bengal. With the passage of time, Nabadwip Vidyasagar College has been advancing from all corners. Students' enrolments are on the rise. About 17 Honours courses have been introduced along with Program courses. There is also a PG Course in Sanskrit. The College has highly qualified, valued, dedicated & committed faculties who are the effective human recourses of this college. The Non-teaching staff also plays a predominant role for the overall development of the college. Students are the assets of the college. They are nurtured and nourished by the talented and dedicated teachers of this college. The strenuous efforts by the teachers in the context of any developmental aspects need no description. The aftermath of their efforts is: Model College declared by NAAC & NAAC Accreditation (2nd Cycle with Grade-B). The declaration of Model College has added another feather which made the stakeholders of Nabadwip Vidyasagar College happy, contented and elated. The role of the Coordinator of IQAC is praiseworthy as he and his team are doing their assigned works from dawn to dusk in order to develop the college. The college has taken a plethora of measures to create an inspiring academic culture/environment which is very much essential for the overall development of the college. NCC and NSS are the pride of this college. About 7700 students are in this college. Considering all, it may be called that Nabadwip Vidyasagar College may be the cynosure of discussion not only in Nadia district but other districts in West Bengal also and it will reach at the pinnacles of success in future.
